

y

Instruction on day three continues with examining data in EnCase followed by a discussion of the location and function of common Windows artifacts and databases that offer the whitazria